"Knock knock." A beautiful, elegant lady outside waits for someone to open the door. She knocks the door again. Suddenly, the door starts moving with a trenching sound. She gently pushes the door and gets inside. With dust all over the place and rats around, she finds it difficult to find a way forward. As she reached towards the person, she stops. "Hello, sir" she says. Again she says. No replies. Then she moves closer to him. Pushes him gently. Again pushes him. Checks if he is breathing. Removes the newspaper. she saw blood. Shouts "Murder, Murder."
